SUBJECT: Designation of Department of Defense Enterprise Email as an Enterprise Service for the Joint Information Environment

In support of the Department's transition to the Joint Information Environment, the DoD Enterprise Email (DEE) service is hereby designated as a DoD Enterprise Service, and as such, will be included in the DoD Information Enterprise Architecture, Appendix G, for compliance purposes.

The DEE provides secure and robust email capability to the DoD enterprise. It is designed to increase operational efficiency and facilitate collaboration across organizational boundaries. DEE reduces the cost of operations and maintenance by consolidating hardware, as well as operations and support teams. DEE provides secure access to email from any location, at all times, from both stationary and mobile devices. With a shared directory that includes all members of the Department, it provides a common platform for the DoD to coordinate across geographically dispersed and diverse organizations, as well as plan and schedule cross-organizational meetings.

As a result of this Enterprise Service designation, all DoD Components are tasked to develop a DEE Implementation Plan within 120 days of the signature date of this memorandum that will:

1. Identify and inventory existing (NIPRNet/SIPRNet) Email capabilities
2. Initiate implementation to DEE no later than 1st Quarter of Fiscal Year 2015
